There Isn't

By: Paige Collins

There aren't a few minutes in a day,

There isn't a day of minutes for you to run and hide,

There isn't a day with a minute that we think,

About all the feeling deep down inside,

There isn't a moment,

We find our lives,

There isn't a day or a moment,

We escape from a world of lies,

There isn't a time,

To do all those things we plan,

There just isn't enough time in the day,

To feel the sand,

To feel the breeze,

To feel the skies,

Or the seas,

There just aren't enough days in a year,

To love the ones,

We hold so dear,

Please God let me,

Just run and hide,

But I know I've got the courage,

Deep down inside,

There isn't enough time in a day,

So God let me have time to pray,

We win this war.
